

WOMANTOURS

OUR MISSION

We strive to provide women of all ages and abilities the opportunity to experience the wonders of bicycling in a safe and supportive environment. We promote cycling as a means to learn about other cultures, the environment and ourselves.

Acadia National Park

I hope you've found some silver linings through these uncertain times. I've rediscovered my passion for puzzles and have been paying more attention to my vegetable garden. And of course, I've been bicycling more.

Most of all, I realized that even though I've been running WomanTours for 16 years, I'm nowhere near ready to retire. I'd miss working with my family and friends too much and I'd really miss meeting and talking to our riders!

Thank you to all of you who have let us keep your deposits from cancelled trips. I sincerely appreciated your votes of confidence. If I ever doubted that WomanTours would get through these challenging times, I needed only to check my email and see that someone had signed up for a tour, or to open our mail and read a handwritten note telling us to hang in there.

Now that we're running bike tours again, we've learned we can do it safely without detracting from the spirit of our tours. A little more hand washing, a bit of physical distancing and a lot more mask wearing, aren't getting in the way of our making new friends and discovering new places by bicycle. WomanTours will be here whenever you're ready to travel again.

We really are all in this together.

I am so happy that WomanTours gave me the opportunity to get away during these strange times. The tour was just a really nice vacation.

Laura, Iowa City, IA

The tour was a new experience with the COVID-19 protocols and I appreciated all the care taken to keep us safe and healthy. I hadn't known what to expect but should have known you all would be on top of it!

NEW SAFETY PROCEDURES

In light of the pandemic, we've put new safety procedures in place on our tours.

- We're requiring everyone to wear masks whenever you're within 6' of others.
 - Our guides will wear gloves and serve meals and snacks..
 - We'll eat meals outside whenever possible, sitting in small groups and physically distanced from others.
 - Our guides will regularly disinfect our vehicles and rental bikes.
 - We've reduced the maximum number of riders transported in our van from 15 to 10.
- We're encouraging single room upgrades by reducing the price whenever possible. We've temporarily suspended our system of rotating roommates. If you need a roommate, we'll assign you one for the entire tour.
 - We've temporarily postponed the due date for tour balance payments from 75 to 45 days for most tours. If you cancel at least 45 days prior to the tour, the most you'll forfeit is $150 of your deposit. Or you can choose to transfer all but $50 to another tour.
 - If we cancel a tour due to the pandemic, we will issue full refunds or credits toward another trip.

How do I get more information?

Call 585-424-2124, visit womantours.com, or email info@womantours.com. Our website always has the most updated information.

What does the tour price include?

Generally, the price includes all lodging, most meals, van support, cycling maps, cue sheets, GPS files, trained guides, and a water bottle. It does not include transportation to the tour, alcoholic beverages, personal expenses, or guide gratuities.

What is the difference between the regular and “epic” tours?

Our epic and cross-country tours are epic in scope. They're often about completing the full length of a trail or crossing an entire country. Therefore we run them a bit differently from our other tours.

We reserve more modest hotels for our epic tours. Our guides prepare a buffet and everyone eats together outside. On our epic tours, while one guide takes the van to the next hotel to prepare dinner, we use a second vehicle to support the riders along the route.

On all of our tours, we do all we can to help you accomplish whatever you want to do. If you're looking for a sense of achievement, join us on an epic tour. If you're looking for an adventure, join us on any tour!

Can I bring my own bike?

About half of our guests bring their own bicycles. Cross-country tour cyclists must ride their own bikes. Upon signing up for a tour, you will receive information for traveling with your bike.

How do I rent a bike?

We offer women-specific bicycles for rent for $195 for most tours. We will need your height and inseam measurements to fit you properly. You can choose a hybrid with straight handlebars or a road bike with racing style, drop handlebars. Electric-assist bicycles (e-bikes) are available on most tours for $295.

Will I be the only one traveling alone?

No! About 40% of our guests come on their own. Unless you request a single upgrade or a specific roommate, we've typically paired you with someone different at each hotel. However, due to the pandemic, we are assigning one roommate for the entire tour. If we are unable to assign you a roommate, you'll need to pay for the single upgrade. We'll re-evaluate this policy as the situation changes.

Do most women share a room?

In the past, the majority of our guests have chosen to have a roommate. More women are preferring to have single rooms at this time.

How do I know if I can do it?

If you can ride five miles on your bicycle today, you can train to ride 20 miles, and then you'll easily be able to do most of our tours. Remember that our support vehicle is always available to pick you up if you get tired. That's what we're there for. If you're worried, consider a tour using an e-bike.

What if I can't keep up?

Everyone rides at her own pace. Women of all cycling abilities join us. One of our guides will always ride last as "sweeper," making sure everyone finishes safely. You're never the last one in!

Will I be the oldest (or youngest) woman on the tour?

Probably not! We've had women as young as 16 and as old as 89. The average age of our guests is 57.

What discounts do you offer on your shorter domestic tours?

If you are among the first six women to sign up, we will give you a 5% discount. If you are returning to tour with us and bring along a new guest, you both receive 5% discounts. If you take two tours within 6 months, you'll usually receive a 10% discount on the second tour. We give a total of 15% in discounts plus a 2% discount for paying by check.

What if I have to cancel?

We understand that personal circumstances sometimes force women to cancel their travel plans. Therefore, we have tried to be as generous as possible with the following domestic (and international) tour cancellation policy:

- 75+ (120+) days before tour: forfeit $150 of your $400 deposit.
- 50 – 74 (75 – 119) days before tour: forfeit 25% of the complete tour price.
- 30 – 49 (50 – 74) days before tour: forfeit 65% of the complete tour price.

- 15 – 29 (30 – 49) days before tour: forfeit 85% of the complete tour price.
- 0 – 14 (0 – 29) days before tour: forfeit 100% of the complete tour price.

You may transfer $350 to another domestic trip up to 75 days before departure or 50% up to 30 days before departure. We strongly recommend the purchase of travel insurance, which covers cancellations for medical reasons. We send you the application for insurance upon receipt of your deposit.

Can I register at the last minute?

Sure, as long as we have space!

Will WomanTours cancel a trip?

In the rare case that we must cancel a trip due to low enrollment, we will do so at least 45 days prior to departure. If we cancel within 45 days, we will issue you a full refund plus a $500 credit toward another tour. If we must cancel a trip for another reason, such as the pandemic, we'll issue you a full refund. In all cases, we will not be responsible for any personal expenses incurred, such as airline tickets.

How does travel insurance work?

Travel insurance usually covers your expenses should you need to cancel prior to or during a tour. Many policies have limited coverage for COVID-19 issues, so it's important you understand what you're paying for. We've written a whole blogpost about it: womantours.com/blog/travel-insurance-in-the-age-of-covid-19.

How long has WomanTours been in business?

Since 1995—we can hardly believe it ourselves!

Can you provide references?

Absolutely – just contact us.

How many women are on a tour?

The average is 13. Our tours often fill completely, so don't hesitate—sign up today!
